POSITION TITLE:	CEA 1 Deputy Executive Director	FINAL FILING DATE:	Friday, June 25, 2010
CEA LEVEL:	CEA 1	EXTENDED FINAL FILING DATE:
SALARY RANGE:	$ 6,173.00 - $ 7,838.00 / Month	BULLETIN ID:	06092010_4

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Under the direction of the Executive Director of the California Buildings Standards Commission (Commission), this Deputy Executive Director plays a significant role in achieving the Commission's primary mission – the development, adoption, and publication of economically viable, factually supported, comprehensible, and user-friendly "statewide" applicable building codes. The Deputy Executive Director will have primary responsibility of the Local Amendment Program and the code adoption codification and publication programs, which result in the publication of Title 24, California Code of Regulations.

The Deputy Executive Director will make a major contribution to the success of the Commission in carrying out its mandated mission to all levels of state and local government and the private sector in the building code adoption process. The Commission is mandated to develop and administer California's "statewide" building codes adoption and publication program, which requires an overwhelming consensus and approval by state and local jurisdiction, building designer, building contractors, building material manufacturers, building owners, and the public. The position develops, implements and administers policies and procedures for the annual code adoption cycle; ensures agency compliance with the California Building Standards Law and the Administrative Procedure Act; approves or rejects adopted or proposed building code change proposals received from state agencies; reviews and approves, or disapproves agencies' public notices of hearings; resolves conflict, duplication, and overlap of building standards; provides technical advice and direction to state agencies in the development of building standards and coordinates their adoption processes. In addition, the Deputy Executive Director supervises staff in all work necessary in the adoption, codification and publication of building standards in Title 24.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Either I

Must be a State civil service employee with permanent civil service status or who previously had permanent status in the State civil service.

Or II

Must be a current or former employee of the Legislature, with two or more consecutive years as defined in Government code § 18990.

Or III

Must be a current or former non-elected exempt employee of the Executive Branch with two or more consecutive years (excluding those positions for which salaries are set by statute) as defined in Government Code § 18992.

Or IV

Must be a person retired from the United States military, honorably discharged from active military duty with a service-connected disability, or honorably discharged from active duty as defined in Government Code § 18991.

KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

Applicants must demonstrate the ability to perform high administrative and policy – influencing functions effectively. Such overall ability requires possession of most of the following more specific knowledge and abilities:

(1) Knowledge of the organization and functions of California State Government including the organization and practices of the Legislature and the Executive Branch; principles, practices, and trends of public administration, organization, and management; techniques of organizing and motivating groups; program development and evaluation; methods of administrative problem solving; principles and practices of policy formulation and development; and personnel management techniques; the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives; and a manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program.

(2) Ability to plan, organize, and direct the work of multidisciplinary professional and administrative staff; analyze administrative policies, organization, procedures and practices; integrate the activities of a diverse program to attain common goals; gain the confidence and support of top level administrators and advise them on a wide range of administrative matters; develop cooperative working relationships with representatives of all levels of government, the public, and the Legislature and Executive branches; analyze complex problems and recommend effective courses of action; and prepare and review reports; and effectively contribute to the department's or agency's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

These knowledge and abilities are expected to be obtained from the following kinds of experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation and/or evaluation of program policies (experience may have been paid or volunteer; in State service, other government settings, or in a private organization):

CEA Level 1. Supervisory/administrative experience in a line or staff activity, including the execution and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 2 and 3. Broad administrative or program manager experience with substantial participation in the formulation, operation, and/or evaluation of program policies.

CEA Levels 4 and 5. Extensive managerial and program administrative experience which has included substantial responsibility for a combination of management functions such as program planning; policy formulation; organization coordination and control; and fiscal and personnel management. Where high technical professional qualifications are of primary importance in performing the duties of a given CEA position, then the above required experience may have been in a staff capacity exercising professional skills to influence and contribute to program, policy, and methods of providing those professional services. Primary examples are medical doctors and attorneys.

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATION(S)

In addition to evaluating each candidate's relative ability, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, the following factors will provide the basis for competitively evaluating each candidate:

- Experience in the legislative process, performing legislative bill analysis and legislative program coordination.
- Experience in the use of building codes.
- Experience in managing a statewide program.
- Experience in supervising, including planning, organizing and directing the work of staff.
- Knowledge of Administrative Procedure Act and Building Standards Law.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

A minimum rating of 70% must be attained to obtain list eligibility. Hiring interviews may be conducted with the most qualified candidates. All candidates will receive written notification of their examination results. The result of this examination will be used only to fill the position of CEA 1 Deputy Executive Director, with the CALIFORNIA BUILDING STANDARDS COMMISSION.
